The second race, for two-year-olds, had seven starters. It was a good betting event, with Hainbow closing a slight favorite. He was never prominent in the race, which was went in a canter by the second choice, Marcellus. The third race, the handicap at a mile and a quarter, which promised to be the event of the day, was completely rulned by scratcher, as Willie L., Banquet and Reckon were the only ones left to face the starter.

Hanquet was made favorite, but Reckon was also well supported, Willie L. being the outsider. The race proved to be an easy thing for Banquet, who trailed his field to the stretch and then drew away, winning handily. The great surprise was Willie L. teating Reckon for the place.

After a long delay at the post they got the flag to a lair start, with Podiga in front. He made the running for a furiong, where he was passed by Marcellus. The latter was never afterwards headed, and won in a canter by a length a balt from Philambronist, who Time—1.10.
